| Where is the story set?  A cottage in the forest. | Who are the characters in the story?  Little Red Riding hood Granny The wolf The woodcutter | How did the story begin?  Little Red Riding hood was taking food to her granny who was sick. |
| What happened in the middle of the story?  The wolf chased granny away and climbed into her bed where he planned to eat little red riding hood. | How did the story end?  The woodcutter chased the wolf away and he never returned. The woodcutter, granny and little red riding hood ate some food together. | What did you think about the story? I thought the story was exciting because at first I thought little red riding hood was going to be eaten by the wolf, then the wood cutter chased him away. I liked the pictures in the book, they were bright. I was able to retell the story just using the pictures to help me as a guide because the pictures were easy to understand. I will read this story again. |
